

Daly's Cottage, Percydale is the only surviving, reasonably intact, remnant of a town which in the 1870's was larger than Avoca. It is listed on the Register of the National Estate, and is managed by the Avoca & District Historical Society under an agreement with the owners. It may be inspected by appointment in return for a donation to the Daly's Cottage Restoration Fund, to which the owners contribute $1000pa

Another activity of the ADHS Inc is 'Friends of the Avoca Cemetery', the purpose of which is to assist the Cemetery Trust with maintenance of the Cemetery and its records.

Amongst the treasures to be found in the Avoca Court House are the old newspapers. For many years Avoca boasted two local papers, each produced twice weekly. They were the "Avoca Mail" and the "Avoca Free Press". Competition between them even extended to one suing the other for libel!

We have most issues from 1863 to 1976, plus the Talbot Leader, on microfilm, we have a ScanPro, which enables us to read a whole page of a broadsheet newspaper on a large screen monitor, and print off all or part of the same. We also have many years in bound volumes, which are fragile, so they are not on open access.

The Society also paid for digitizing & uploading of the Avoca Mail(1863-68) and it is now live on Trove.

Our archives include copies of various local cemetery grave sites, some school records, copies of inquests, thousands of photos, many unfortunately not yet identified.

A Memorial Wall was unveiled by a descendant of an early Magistrate, Charles Warburton Carr in the oldest section of the Avoca Cemetery in February 2015. Plaques can be affixed in memory of early citizens who are buried in unmarked graves. Please contact the society for more details.
